Required for February 2019

Al-Hijrah has a long and proud history of providing excellent education in an Islamic context. We are always keen to change and develop to ensure we meet the needs of our children. We recognise that our children will grow up in a fast paced dynamic world and need to ensure they have the tools to succeed. It is our endeavour to create and develop an environment that is welcoming, an environment that is positive and celebrates the very best of Islamic and British heritage. Al Hijrah School has a clear aim to provide outstanding education for all of its pupils. Key to the schools development is significant investment in innovative teaching.

We are looking for an imaginative Teacher who is committed to providing a consistent good/outstanding education to our students, have a proven track record of engaging, enthusing and motivating students to raise standards, attainment and student progress, be organised, innovative, self-motivated and have a 'can do attitude'.

Candidates must be dedicated to raising levels of achievement for all students as well as contributing to any activity that supports the school's overall aims and objectives outlined in the School Improvement Plan.

The contract will be temporary until 31 August 2019 or on the return of the substantive postholder, whichever is the earlier.

Closing Date for Applications: 12 December 2018

Al-Hijrah School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants.

JOB DESCRIPTION: TEACHER

Job title: Teacher

Responsible to: Deputy HT

MAIN PURPOSE

- To contribute to the development of a strong, effective school with an emphasis on promoting a culture of educational excellence, within a caring and secure Islamic environment enriched with the values of discipline, mutual care and respect which extends beyond the school into the wider community.

OVERALL RESPONSIBILITY

- To plan and develop high quality lessons and courses, using a variety of approaches, to continually enhance teaching and learning.
- To maintain and build upon the standards achieved in the award for QTS as set out by the Secretary of State.

SECTION 1 - GENERAL TEACHING DUTIES

Teaching and Learning

1. Have secure knowledge and understanding of the subjects taught (including cross-curricular learning)
2. Know and understand the statutory and non-statutory frameworks including those provided through the national strategies for the subjects taught
3. Plan for progression across the age and ability range you teach, designing effective learning sequences (episodes) within lessons and across a series of lessons/ unit of work
4. Plan lessons appropriate to the needs, interests, experience and existing knowledge of the pupils in the class
5. Design opportunities for children to develop their literacy, numeracy, ICT and thinking and learning skills (as appropriate)
6. Plan and assess homework and other out-of-class work, where appropriate to ensure progress and to extend and consolidate learning
7. Teach challenging, well organised lessons and sequences of lessons in which you:
 - know and use an appropriate range of teaching strategies and resources, which meet learners' needs and take practical account of diversity and promote equality and inclusion;
 - build on the prior knowledge and attainment of those you teach in order that learners meet learning objectives and make sustained progress;
 - develop concepts and processes which enable learners to apply new knowledge, understanding and skills;
 - adapt your language to suit the children you teach, introducing new ideas and concepts clearly, and using explanations, questions, discussions and plenaries effectively;

- manage the learning of individuals, groups and whole classes effectively, modifying your teaching appropriately to suit the stage of the lesson and the needs of the learners.
8. Teach engaging and motivating lessons designed to raise levels of attainment
 9. Personalise learning to provide opportunities for all learners to achieve their potential, (including EAL/ special needs/ disabilities/ G&T children) promoting equality and inclusion
 10. Use positive management of behaviour in an environment of mutual respect which allows pupils to feel safe and secure and promotes their self-esteem
 11. Nurture the growth of the whole child – spiritually, intellectually, socially, emotionally and physically
 12. Understand how children develop and how progress, well-being and development are affected by a range of developmental, social, religious, ethnic, cultural, linguistic and personal circumstances
 13. Challenge and inspire pupils to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the curriculum and of their faith
 14. Review the effectiveness of your teaching and its impact on learners' progress, attainment and well-being, refining their approaches where necessary
 15. Review the impact of the feedback provided to children and guide them on how to improve their attainment.

Monitoring, Assessment, Recording, Reporting, and Accountability

1. Be immediately responsible for the processes of identification, assessment, recording and reporting for the pupils in their charge.
2. Assess pupils' work systematically and use the results to inform future planning, teaching and curricular development.
3. Be familiar with statutory assessment and reporting procedures and prepare and present informative, helpful and accurate reports to parents.
4. Keep an accurate register of pupils for each lesson. Unexplained absences or patterns of absence should be reported immediately in accordance with the School policy.

Subject knowledge and understanding

1. Have a thorough and up-to-date knowledge and understanding of the National Curriculum programmes of study, level descriptors and specifications for examination courses.
2. Keep up-to-date with research and developments in pedagogy and the subject

Professional Standards and Development

1. Be a role model to pupils through personal presentation and professional conduct.
2. Arrive in class, on or before the start of the lesson, and begin and end lessons on time.
3. Cover for absent colleagues as is reasonable, fair and equitable.
4. Be familiar with the School and Department handbooks and support all the School's policies, e.g. those on Health and Safety, Citizenship, Literacy, Numeracy and ICT.

5. Establish effective working relationships with professional colleagues and associate staff.
6. Be involved in extra-curricular activities such as making a contribution to after-school clubs and visits.
7. Maintain a working knowledge and understanding of teachers' professional duties as set out in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, and teachers' legal liabilities and responsibilities relating to all current legislation, including the role of the education service in protecting children.
8. Liaise effectively with parent/carers and with other agencies with responsibility for pupils' education and welfare.
9. Be aware of the role of the Governing Body of the School and support it in performing its duties.
10. Be familiar with and implement the relevant requirements of the current SEN Code of Practice, DDA and Access to Work.
11. Consider the needs of all pupils within lessons (and implement specialist advice) especially those who:
 - have SEN
 - are gifted and talented
 - are not yet fluent in English

Health and Safety

1. Be aware of the responsibility for personal Health, Safety and Welfare and that of others who may be affected by your actions or inactions.
2. Co-operate with the employer on all issues to do with Health, Safety & Welfare.

Continuing Professional Development

1. In conjunction with the line manager, take responsibility for personal professional development, keeping up-to-date with research and developments in teaching pedagogy and changes in the School Curriculum, which may lead to improvements in teaching and learning.
2. Undertake any necessary professional development as identified in the School Improvement Plan taking full advantage of any relevant training and development available.
3. Maintain a professional portfolio of evidence to support the Performance Management process - evaluating and improving own practice.
4. Contribute to the professional development of colleagues
5. Act upon advice and feedback and be open to coaching and mentoring

N.B: Every teacher will be expected to have pastoral responsibilities

SECTION 2 - ADDITIONAL DUTIES FOR THIS POST 2017-2018
